STATEMENTS
CIRUCLATION OF STATEMENTS RESPONSE

Hon. Speaker: Hon. Members, various statements were sought. One was the statement sought by hon. Dominic Maitha on stalled ECD classes and that statement was directed to the chairperson, education committee. The other statement was sought by hon. Oliver Nzeki on power black outs and the possibility of using solar energy on street lights and CCTV cameras. That statement should be delivered by the chairperson, labor, public service and ICT.

The third statement was sought by hon. Dominic Maitha on the stalled health facilities. The chairperson, health and emergency services will deliver that statement. The statement sought by hon. Stephen Muthuka on Machakos County staff biometric registration and payment of casual workers, that statement is ready and the directions that I issued are that these statements be circulated as per the Standing Orders, with the hon. members who requested for them and they shall be delivered in the next sitting, on Tuesday.

ADJOURNMENT

Hon. Speaker: Hon. members, there is no other business today, and there is a request that has been brought to my attention by the Sergeant at Arms, that our respectable women ladies are not releasing their handbags. Kindly co-operate. It is important for security purposes. Thank you very much.
