(7) The county government shall from time to time review the performance of waste operators and may suspend or cancel a waste operator's permit if the permit holder has breached the terms and conditions of the permit or has been guilty of negligence in managing waste whose management is authorized by the permit; or if there is some other reason which, the county government seems to justify such action.

(8) The county government may on its own initiative, or on the application of the permit holder, modify the terms and conditions of the permit but any such modification shall be enforced and effected unless published in a local daily and representations from members of the public dealt with as if it were a new application.

(9) Where it appears to the county government that the continuation of activities to which a waste operator's permit relates is causing or would cause pollution of the environment, danger to the public health or serious detriment to the amenity of the locality affected by the activities and the pollution, danger or detriment cannot be avoided by modifying the conditions of the permit the county government may revoke the permit with effect from a specified date after serving notice on the permit holder and hearing any representations that the permit holder may wish to make as to why the permit should not be revoked.

(10) The holder of a permit may transfer the permit to another person but such a transfer shall be of no force and effect until the county has notified the holder that it does not object to the proposed transfer and upon payment of the prescribed fees in the approved fees and charges.

(11) The holder of a permit may relinquish the permit by giving notice to the county government that he or she no longer requires the permit and delivering the permit to the county government.

(12) Relinquishment shall be of no force and effect until the permit holder receives notification that the county government does not object to the relinquishment and in any case shall not absolve the permit holder from any liabilities or obligations whether civil or criminal incurred during the period when he or she held the permit.

329. (1) It shall be an offence for any person who is not a registered transporter of solid waste or a permit holder in the course of any business of his or otherwise with a view to profit, to transport any solid waste within the county unless he belongs to a category of transporters who have been exempted by the county government from registration.

Waste transporters

(2) The county government shall make provision for the registration of waste transporters.

(3) Applicants shall provide information regarding their physical address and their financial and technical capability to transport waste.

(4) The county government may require registered waste transporters to execute a bond as a condition for registration.

(5) In determining whether it is desirable for any individual to be or to continue to be authorized to transport waste, the county government shall have regard, in a case in which a person other than the individual has been convicted of an offence under this Act, to whether that individual has been party to the carrying on of business in a manner involving the commission of an offence under this Act.

(6) The county government may revoke the registration of a person who has been convicted of an offence under this Act.

(7) If it appears to a duly authorized officer of the county government that any waste is being or has been transported in contravention of this Act he or she may, in the presence of a police officer, stop any person appearing to him or her to be or to have been engaged in transporting that waste and require that person to produce his or her authority or, as the case may be, his or her employer's authority, for transporting that waste and search any vehicle that appears to him or her to be a vehicle which is being or has been used for transporting waste.

(8) A person's authority to transport waste is his or her certificate of registration as a transporter of waste or a certified copy thereof or evidence that he or she is not required to be registered as a waste transporter.

330. (1) The County Government shall maintain a register containing prescribed particulars of all waste operator's permits and registrations of transporters which are for the time being in force.

Registers

(2) The County Government shall ensure that the register is open for inspection at its principal office by members of the public free of charge at all reasonable hours.

(3) The County Government shall accord members of the public reasonable facilities for obtaining, on payment of reasonable charges, copies of entries in the register.

331. (1) It shall be the duty of the County Government to arrange for the collection, treatment and disposal of, or otherwise dealing with, all domestic waste and street and other litter generated or otherwise arising within the county and to take all necessary and reasonably practicable measures to maintain all places falling within the county in a clean and sanitary condition at all times.

Collection

(2) For the purposes of carrying out its duty under sub-section (1) the county government may enter into such agreements with third parties as it deems appropriate including contracts, franchises, and concessions.

(3) It shall be the duty of the person who generates trade waste or on whose premises trade waste otherwise arises to arrange for the collection, treatment and disposal of all trade waste generated by him and to take all necessary and reasonably practicable measures to ensure that the trade waste is not released into the environment so as to cause pollution thereof.

(4) It shall be the duty of every occupier and every owner of premises wherein any hazardous waste or clinical waste is generated, to make suitable arrangements, including the separation of such waste from other non-hazardous waste or non-clinical waste, to the satisfaction of the county government, for the proper management of the waste and in doing so shall comply with any directions issued by the county government.

(5) It shall be the duty of every occupier and every owner of premises wherein bulk waste is generated to make suitable arrangements for the disposal of such waste and in doing so shall comply with any directions of county government.

(6) Every occupier or tenant of any residential dwelling shall provide and maintain, to the satisfaction of the County Government, a container for domestic waste of a sufficient size, and fitted with a good and effective lid and shall daily cause to be placed within such container the domestic waste from the said residential dwelling in so far as the said container shall be sufficient to contain the same;

(7) Every occupier or tenant of any trade premises shall provide and maintain to the satisfaction of the county government a container for trade waste of a sufficient size, and fitted with a good and effective lid, and shall daily cause to be placed within such container the trade waste from the said premises in so far as the said container shall be sufficient to contain the same.

(8) If it appears to the county government that there is likely to be situated on any premises in its area trade waste of a kind or in quantities which, if the waste is not stored in containers of a particular kind, is likely to cause a nuisance or to be detrimental to the amenity of the locality in which the premises are situated the county may, by notice served on the occupier, require him or her to provide at the premises, containers for the storage of such waste which are of a kind and number reasonably specified in the notice.

(9) Occupiers of domestic and trade premises shall separate waste which can be recycled and place them in a different container provided by the county or the waste operator as the case may be for the purpose.

(10) It shall be an offence to burn, throw away, or otherwise dispose of domestic and trade waste other than by handing it to, or where there is an arrangement to that effect, leaving it at an appropriate place and in an appropriate container, for collection by a licensed waste manager operator or a registered waste transporter.

332. (1) Waste shall be disposed off only in permitted disposal areas or at an approved disposal facility.

Disposal

(2) It shall be the duty of the county government to provide places at which to deposit waste before it's transferred to a place for its final disposal and places at which to dispose of waste and plant and equipment for processing it or otherwise disposing of it.

(3) The County Government may permit another person to use facilities provided by it with or without a charge as may be appropriate.

(4) The person in charge of the waste disposal facility and the person delivering waste to the facility shall maintain a record of all waste loads disposed off at the facility. The record shall take the form of a delivery note signed by both parties at the time of disposal of each load. The records shall be kept for a period of five years and shall be availed to the county government on request within that period.

(5) Waste delivered to a permit holder shall be his or her responsibility to him or her to deal with it under this Act.

(6) No person shall sort over or disturb anything deposited at a place provided or approved by the county government for the deposit of waste or in containers for waste provided by the county government or other person unless he or she is authorized to do so by the county government or unless she or he is a person entitled to the custody of the container or is authorized to do so by such a person or is a person having the function of emptying the container.

(7) The county government shall make provision for small scale resource recovery activities to be undertaken by organized groups at designated sites before disposal of waste.

(8) A permit holder may do such things as it considers appropriate for the purpose of enabling waste belonging to it to be used again or enabling substances to be reclaimed from such waste and it may use, sell, or otherwise dispose of waste belonging to it or anything produced from such waste.

333. (1) The county government shall issue directions on waste collection charges. Payments

(2) The directions shall specify the amount of charge or charges to be imposed for different categories of services or for services in different localities or zones within the County; the mode of payment and receipt of the charges; and provisions as to the penalty or penalties for failure to pay the charges.

(3) Directions on charges or waste management services may provide for the imposition of a levy to meet the costs of general cleansing but any such levy must be itemized separately on the waste bill or other invoice and must be placed by the collector in a dedicated fund.

(4) Charges shall be collected by the person who provides the waste management services for which the charge is being levied.

(5) There shall be paid by every person or entity to whom a waste management service is provided, a waste charge imposed in accordance with the directions issued by the county government.

(6) The county government may impose the waste charges as per the approved fees and charges.

334. The county government shall establish and implement a system of monitoring, inspections and enforcement of waste management activities and shall inform and keep the public informed of steps it is taking to implement and improve waste management within the county.

Enforcement

(2) Any officer or agent of the county government duly authorized in that behalf, may at all reasonable times, enter any residential dwelling or trade premises within the county for the purposes of conducting any inspection, inquiry or the execution of works under the provisions of this Act.

(3) In addition to such penalties for non-payment as may be stipulated in the directions issued by the county government for non-payment of charges for waste management services, any waste management charge payable under this Act shall be a debt due and owing to the collector and may be recovered as a civil debt at the instance of the collector or any person authorized by the collector to collect on its behalf.

(4) Any power or function conferred on the county government under this Act may be exercised or performed by a third party pursuant to an agreement between the County Government and the third party and will be deemed to have been exercised or performed under the authority of this Act.

335. Any person who refuses or fails to comply with any provision of this Part commits an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings in respect of a first offence and not exceeding seven thousand shillings in respect of a second or subsequent offence, or imprisonment for a term not seven months in respect of the first offence and not exceeding nine months in respect of a second or subsequent offence or both.

PART XXII – FILM MAKING CULTURAL EVENTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

336. Any person operating a cinema, video shows and hiring as a business or occupation shall make an application to the authorized officer for a business permit.

Cinemas, video shows and hiring

337. (1) The county government shall charge such permit fees for operating such cinemas, video shows and hiring as prescribed in the approved fees and charges.

Fees

(2) Any person who operates a cinema, video shows or hiring without the permit or payment of the permit fees commits an offence under this Part.

338. The county government shall—

Promotion of cultures and cultural heritage

(1) Promote all forms of cultural expression through literature, the arts, traditional celebrations, science, communication, information, mass media, publication, libraries and other cultural heritage; and

(2) Promote the intellectual property rights of the people in the County; and

(3) Ensure that communities receive compensation or royalties for the use of their cultures and cultural heritage.

339. Any person who fails to comply with any provision of this part commits an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings in respect of a first offence and not exceeding seven thousand shillings in respect of a second or subsequent offence, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven months in respect of a first offence and not exceeding nine months in respect of a second or subsequent, offence or both.

Penalties

PART XXIII – TRAFFIC FLOW CONTROL

340. (1) The driver of a vehicle shall at all times—

Signals and signs to be obeyed

(a) obey any directions given, whether verbally or by signal by a police officer in uniform or an authorized officer in the execution of his or her duty;

- (b) conform to the indications given by any traffic sign;
- (c) stop his vehicle on being so required by a police officer in uniform or an authorized officer; or
- (d) when any person in charge of any cattle raises his or her hand or in any manner gives a signal to stop, forthwith stop his or her vehicle and keep it stationary for as long as it is reasonably necessary.

(2) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section commits an offence and shall be liable on first conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven months, and on each subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding seven thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding nine months or to both.

341. (1) No vehicle shall be allowed to remain in any position on any road so as to obstruct or to be likely to obstruct or cause inconvenience or danger to other traffic using the road, and, save where the contrary is expressly provided in this Act, every vehicle on a road when not in motion, shall be drawn up as close to the side of the road as possible.

(2) The driver of any vehicle shall, in case of a break-down, remove the vehicle from the road as soon as possible, and until so removed the vehicle shall be placed as close to the side of the road as possible; and as the vehicle remains on the road between the hours of 6.45 p.m. to 6.15 a.m., its position shall be clearly indicated by a light or lights visible to drivers of vehicles approaching from either direction.

(3) If any part of the vehicle remains on or near the road in a position so as to obstruct or to be likely to obstruct or to cause or to be likely to cause inconvenience or danger to other traffic using the road, the driver shall place on the road not less than fifty metres from the vehicle two red reflecting triangles of such construction and dimensions as may be prescribed, one ahead of the vehicle and one behind it so that each is clearly visible to drivers of vehicles approaching from ahead or behind, as the case may be.

(4) Any person who leaves any vehicle on a road in such a position or manner or in such a condition as to obstruct other vehicles or cause or be likely to cause any danger to any person shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding ten thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding eighteen months or both.

342. No person shall —

Unattended motor vehicles

(1) Leave unattended on a road any motor vehicle with the engine running; or

(2) Leave any vehicle without having taken due precautions against its moving along the road from its stationary position.

343. (1) Subject to and in conformity with such general or other directions as may be given by the Executive Committee Member responsible for transport, the county government may cause or permit traffic signs to be placed on or near a road.

Traffic signs

(2) Traffic signs shall be of the prescribed size, colour and type except where the Executive Committee Member responsible for transport authorizes the erection or retention of a sign of another character.

(3) No traffic signs shall be placed on or near any road except under and in accordance with subsection (1) and (2) above.

(4) All traffic signs shall be deemed to have been lawfully erected until the contrary is proved.

(5) The county government in collaboration with the highway authority may, by notice in writing, require the owner or occupier of any land on which there is any traffic sign or any object which so closely resembles a traffic sign that it might reasonably be taken to be such a sign to remove it, and if any person fails to comply with such a notice the highway authority may effect the removal, doing as little damage as may be, and may recover as a civil debt recoverable summarily from the person so in default the expense incurred in so doing:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply in the case of any sign or object so long as its retention is expressly authorized by the highway authority.

344. Any person who contravenes the provisions of this part commits an offence and liable on first conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven months, and on each subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding seven thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding nine months or to both.
